

MAKE A FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTION TO THE ARKANSAS CRAFT SCHOOL

The Arkansas Craft School depends on the generosity of individuals and corporations for financial support. Forty percent of our income is provided by tuition from students and other participants in our program. The remaining 60% must come from private and corporate gifts and designated grants.

The Arkansas Craft School is registered with the Internal Revenue Service as a 501.c.3 educational charity. The School is also registered with the Arkansas Attorney General pursuant to the law concerning Solicitation of Charitable Contributions found at the Ark. Code Ann.par.4-28-401 et seq.

Gifts to the Arkansas Craft School will be recognized in the Annual Report of the School and on our web site.
